10. TERMS OF COMMITMENT AND DECLARATION:

Important: Please read the following and sign below

Your signature below indicates you will abide by the policies set forth by Father to the Fatherless International (F2F), whether stated on this form or declared when you arrive on the site. Those who violate F2F policies may be dismissed as a volunteer and asked to leave.

Terms of Commitment

- I commit to displaying a servant's heart.
- I commit to following the F2F dress code and rules of conduct.
- I commit to not bringing my own agenda, but to labor wherever needed, as directed by the staff of F2F, so that God will get the glory.
- I commit to exhibiting a positive work ethic that will encourage the Ugandan staff and children to follow my example as they observe me.

Declaration

- I, the undersigned, declare all the above information to be truthful and accurate.
- I understand that I will work under the authority of F2F and will submit to the authority at the ministry's property.
- I understand that all finances and insurances are my own responsibility during my stay abroad, and that F2F cannot be held responsible for any loss in this matter. I understand that I will work as an unpaid volunteer and will raise my own support or cover all expenses myself.
- I understand that during my time as a volunteer, I am not allowed to take narcotic drugs, alcoholic beverages, or smoke.

In addition to this application, a letter of reference is required from your Pastor or another Christian leader who has known you for at least two years. Have the letter sent directly to F2F at fathertothefatherless@gmail.com or faxed to (970) 255-9866.

We are grateful to God for the sacrifices each volunteer makes to come to Uganda to work with us. However, if you cannot commit to the terms of this agreement, F2F reserves the right to deny your request to volunteer. Only those who have obtained approval have permission to use the name or logo of Father to the Fatherless International to raise funds and support from friends and organizations.
